

Important Information Regarding: Mexico Security Event – February 2026

Issued: 26/02/2026

Background

Widespread violence has been reported across the country of Mexico since Sunday, 22nd February 2026 after the cartel leader "El Mencho" was killed in a military operation organised by Mexican security forces.

Reports have indicated that in at least 20 of Mexico's 32 states, businesses were vandalised and roadblocks consisting of burning vehicles were erected in retaliation to the military operation by associates of the cartel. Mexican political leadership has stated that "In the vast majority of the national territory, activities are proceeding with complete normality."

Several airlines have stated they have temporarily suspended operations in some locations across Mexico, with the airports in Puerto Vallarta and Guadalajara being mentioned as the primarily affected locations for these cancellations.
